Questions Asked and Answered

Will I get paid for the holiday if I am on disability?

An employee on sick leave, leave for pregnancy, or who is temporarily totally disabled and receiving worker's compensation will receive holiday pay for a given holiday if the employee has not been absent from work for a period of sixty (60) consecutive calendar days on the date of such holiday. This information can be found in 10.01 of the contract.

I accumulated 100 pts. in Sharecare benefits before May 1st and am curious when to expect the $100 credit on my paycheck? The best first route for these questions is to first call Sharecare to be sure you earned the 100 points and when. There has been a little confusion on points earned for each section and since Kohler doesn't have direct access to that, Sharecare can review that first with the user. Kohler does not have direct access to that, for privacy/confidentiality reasons.

If Sharecare confirms that you earned those points and you have not received the $100, then yes contact Penny at the hall.

Call Sharecare customer service at 855.561.7028 Monday-Friday 7am-7pm CT Saturday 8am-4:30pm CT.
